

Student self-assessment sheet

Name: _____

Class: _____

Before you answer the questions, read through them at first and then give an honest answer! This is important, because then I can offer you better help!

I. Listening Comprehension

You have to say what you think about yourself. When you tick the 😊 you say that you are very good at that, when you tick the 😞 you say that you are not really good at that.

	😊	🙂	😐	😞	😡
I can understand longer texts, even if I don't know all the words.
I can answer simple Yes / No questions on this text.
I can take notes while hearing the text.
I can remember details.
I don't have to hear the text for a second time to know what it was about.

And here is some space for your own comments:

II. Grammar

This is now about a topic not many of you like, I know, but I have to know where your real problems are. Just tick the boxes!

I have difficulties with / often make mistakes:	Yes	No
Irregular verbs (Go - went - gone....verbs like these...)
If - Clauses (Remember: If and would ... J!)
The passive voice
The plurals
Some / any Much / many

I have difficulties with / often make mistakes:	Yes	No
the use of the tenses:
- simple past vs. past progressive (I walked home – I was walking)
- present perfect (I have walked)
- simple past vs. present perfect
- past perfect (I had walked home)
- will – and going to future
- timetable future (The train leaves at 8 a.m.)
Negative questions (You are good at English grammar, aren't you?)
Adjectives and adverbs (good and well, and things like these!)
The grading of adjectives (good – better – best/ bad – worse – worst)
Repeatedly uses of Germanese "It gives the possibility"
Word order

III. Talking

Sometimes it is necessary that you give a talk in class or answer questions I also want to know about your problems in here ... If you have got any! Just tick the boxes!

	Yes	No
I can give a talk in class
I can't give a talk in class – I am too shy. They could laugh at me!
When I speak I sometimes don't know the words.
I don't dare to speak in class at all. What if it's wrong?
I can always say what I mean.
